PRIVACY ACT 1988

I/WE authorise Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd ACN 123 855 069 ("Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd"):

- to obtain, from a credit reporting agency, a credit report containing personal information about me/us in relation to collecting overdue payments;
- to obtain, from a credit reporting agency, a credit report containing personal credit information about me/us to assess this application;
- to obtain, from a business which provides information about the commercial credit worthiness of persons, information about my/our commercial activities or commercial credit worthiness;
- to obtain, from a credit reporting agency, a credit report containing personal information about me/us, if Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd considers this relevant to accepting me/us as a Guarantor in respect of the Customer's credit account with Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd
- to give to and seek from any credit providers, named as trade references in this credit application or in a credit report issued by a credit reporting agency, information about my/our credit arrangements. This information can include any information about my/our credit worthiness, credit history or credit capacity that the Privacy Act allows credit providers to give or receive from each other.

Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd may use the information obtained:

- to access my/our application for credit;
- to notify other credit providers of any default by me/us;
- to exchange information with other credit providers about the status of my/our credit account if I am/we are in default;
- * to assess my/our credit worthiness.

Pursuant to section 18E (18) Privacy Act, Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd may disclose to a credit reporting agency personal information relating to me/us. This includes:

- information reasonably necessary in order to identify me/us;
- the fact that I/we have applied for credit and the amount of that credit;
- information about payments at least 60 days overdue and for which Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd has taken action to recover the whole or any part;
- advice that payments are no longer overdue;
- information that a cheque for an amount not less than $100 has been drawn by me/us and has twice been presented and dishonoured;
- the opinion of Southern Civil Services Pty Ltd that I/we have, in the circumstances specified, committed a serious credit infringement;
- information that my/our credit has been paid or otherwise discharged;
- court judgements and bankruptcy orders against me/us;

I authorise this disclosure.
